I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

Scope of application

1.1. The present Younger Age Category Euro Regulations (“YAC EHF EURO Regulations”) govern the rights, duties and responsibilities of all parties participating and involved in the preparation and organisation of the following national teams’ competitions organised by the European Handball Federation (“EHF”) pursuant to Articles 1.2 and 11.2 of the EHF Statutes:

- Women’s 17 EHF EURO 2025
(open for players born 2008 or younger)
- Women’s 19 EHF EURO 2025
(open for players born 2006 or younger)

These competitions are hereinafter jointly referred to as “YAC EHF EUROS” or individually referred to as “W17/W19 EHF EURO”.

1.2. The EHF is entitled to change and/or adapt the format of EHF competitions (including but not limited to the playing system, playing periods, throw-off times etc.) also during ongoing seasons. The EHF will especially make use of such right in case of exceptional circumstances (such as acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond the reasonable control of a party including, without limitation, a labour dispute, pandemic, accident, fire, flood, riot or civil commotion, act of public enemy, legal enactment, government act etc).

Article 2

Fair play

2.1. The principles of fair play must be observed by the EHF Member Federations, their delegations and their teams in all matches. Every member of the EHF Member Federation delegations participating in an YAC EHF EURO shall:

- Observe the Rules of the Game and the regulations governing the competition
- Respect all participants (players, officials, spectators, media representatives etc.)
- Promote the spirit of sportsmanship and pursue the cultural mission

Article 3

Applicable rules and regulations

3.1. All EHF regulations, manuals and guidelines applicable to the YAC EHF EURO shall form an integral part of the present YAC EHF EURO Regulations including (without limitation):

- The EHF Advertising on Clothing Regulations
- The EHF Rules on Safety and Security Procedure
- The EHF Legal Regulations
- The EHF List of Penalties
- The EHF Catalogue of Administrative Sanctions
- The IHF Rules of the Game (subject to EHF specifications)
- The IHF Player's Eligibility Code (part of the IHF Transfer Regulations)
- The IHF Regulations on Protective Equipment and Accessories
- The EHF Regulations for Anti-Doping
- The EHF Codes of Conduct
- The EHF Off Court Officiating Guidelines
- The EHF EURO Event Set-up Manual
- The EHF YAC Brand Guidelines
- The YAC EHF EURO Procedures and Guidelines Manual

II. COMPETITION BASICS

Article 4

Competition stages and rhythm

- 4.1. The Younger Age Category EUROS (the “Competition(s)”) consist(s) of a final tournament (“YAC EHF EURO”).
- 4.2. The W17/W19 EHF EUROS take place in a two-year rhythm in odd years.

Competition announcement

- 4.3. Each YAC EHF EURO is staged and organised by one EHF Member Federation (the “Host Federation”). Any alteration to this principle must be approved by the EHF Executive Committee.
- 4.4. The official announcement of a YAC EHF EURO is made by the EHF to the EHF Member Federations. The YAC EHF EURO application documents to stage and organise the respective YAC EHF EURO including (without limitation) the relevant bidding manual are sent to each EHF Member Federation in due time before the YAC EHF EURO playing periods.

Allocation of the competitions

- 4.5. The fulfilment of the criteria established by the EHF Executive Committee and/or defined in the corresponding YAC EHF EURO application documents, including (without limitation), the relevant bidding manual, is required for an application by a Member Federation.
- 4.6. The allocation of a YAC EHF EURO to a Member Federation is decided by the EHF Executive Committee.

III. ENTRIES/ADMISSIONS/DUTIES – CONDITIONS

Article 5

Right of registration

- 5.1. Notwithstanding the respective EHF ranking list, any EHF Member Federation which has satisfied its obligations towards the EHF and the IHF is entitled to register in order to participate in a YAC EHF EURO.
- 5.2. Under exceptional circumstances, permission may be granted by the EHF Executive Committee to an Associated Federation or temporarily admitted Federation to register in order to participate in a YAC EHF EURO.

Single registration

- 5.3. The registration of the teams participating in a YAC EHF EURO, including the payment of the respective entry fee, takes place within the deadline provided by the EHF.

Admission criteria and fees

Registration documents

- 5.4. For its team to be eligible to participate in the Competition, a Member Federation must fulfil the following criteria:
 - a) It must confirm in writing that the Member Federation itself, its players and team officials and each and every delegation member agree to respect the statutes, regulations, code of conduct and decisions of the EHF (pledge of commitment/code of conduct – official form)
 - b) It must confirm in writing that the Member Federation itself, its players and team officials and each and every delegation member agree to recognise the jurisdiction of the European Handball Court of Arbitration in Vienna as defined in the relevant provisions of the Statutes of the EHF (arbitration agreement – official form).

- c) It must fill in the official registration documents which must be received by the EHF Office within the deadline set by the latter and communicated in due course to all Member Federations.
- 5.5. In principle, registrations submitted after the set deadline cannot be accepted as they adversely affect the technical preparations and the carrying out of the Competition by the EHF and the Host Federation.

Entry fee

- 5.6. For its team to be eligible to participate in the Competition, a Member Federation must pay an entry fee of € 375 to the EHF which must be received on the EHF account within the deadline set by the EHF and communicated in due course to all Member Federations.
- 5.7. The entry fee is paid once by the participating Member Federation for the entire Competition.
- 5.8. If the payment is not received by the EHF on the due date, the entry fee is automatically doubled.
- 5.9. If the entry fee is not received within four (4) weeks after the announced deadline, the Member Federation must be fined € 2,250 and must be excluded from the respective Competition.

Deposit

- 5.10. Together with the entry fee, all Member Federations that wish to have a team participating in the Competition must make a deposit (for the use of other purposes) to the EHF. The deposit per team must amount to a minimum of € 1,875 in the case point 5.11. does not apply.
- 5.11. The EHF Executive Committee is allowed to set a permanent deposit of between € 0 and € 6,000 for each Member Federation, depending on the frequency of its participation in EHF competitions. If a Member Federation has a permanent deposit with the EHF, it does not have to transfer the amount as stipulated in Article 5.10.
- 5.12. If the frequency of the Member Federation participation in EHF competitions changes, the amount of the individual permanent deposit may be adjusted by the EHF Executive Committee.

- 5.13. The EHF is allowed to ask the Member Federations that wish to have a team participating in the final tournament of the Competition to set an additional deposit with the EHF which would cover the cost of any damage caused by their respective delegations in the hotels at the playing venues. The deposit is returned to the Member Federations at the end of the Competition if no damage has occurred.

Duties of the Member Federations

- 5.14. On entering the Competition, participating Member Federations and each and every delegation member agree:
- a) To comply with the IHF Rules of the Game (and with the specifications to the IHF Rules of the Game applying to the YAC EHF EURO).
 - b) To respect the principles of fair play as defined in the Statutes of the EHF.
 - c) To participate in all matches of the Competition in accordance with the present YAC EHF EURO Regulations and any other applicable regulations.
 - d) To comply with all decisions regarding the Competition taken by the EHF Executive Committee, the EHF Office or any other competent body and communicated appropriately (by official letter or email).
 - e) To observe the EHF Rules on Safety and Security Procedure for all matches in the Competition.
 - f) To indemnify, defend and hold the EHF free and harmless against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, fines and expenses of whatsoever kind or nature resulting from, arising out of, or attributable to any non-compliance by the participating Member Federation or any of its players, officials, employees, representatives or agents with these YAC EHF EURO Regulations.

IV. WITHDRAWAL, FAILURE TO PLAY AND SIMILAR CASES

Article 6

Withdrawal, failure to play and similar cases

- 6.1. A team withdrawing from the YAC EHF EURO or failing to play a YAC EHF EURO match is immediately excluded from the Competition.
- 6.2. In case of withdrawal, the deposit and the solidarity contribution must be forfeited to the credit of the EHF and the respective Member Federation shall be liable to pay compensation to the Host Federation, the participants, the EHF and/or their contractual partners for extra expenses and damages resulting from the withdrawal and from any nomination of a substitute team.
- 6.3. The Member Federation must moreover be fined and sanctioned in accordance with Article C of the EHF List of Penalties.
- 6.4. In case of failure to play a scheduled match, the entry fee, the deposit and the solidarity contribution must be forfeit to the credit of the EHF and the Member Federation may be fined up to € 25,000. The team may additionally be suspended from participation in EHF competitions for up to two (2) seasons.
- 6.5. Failure to play a match or late arrival at the venue of a match through a team's provable fault must, in addition to the basic punishment, render the Federation of the defaulting team liable for damages and payment of all costs arising thereof to the Host Federation, the participants, the EHF and in particular their contractual partners.
- 6.6. If a team withdraws, refuses to play or is disqualified during the YAC EHF EURO, the results of all of its matches are declared null and void and the points awarded are forfeited.
- 6.7. If a team that has registered for the YAC EHF EURO withdraws or is disqualified, the EHF may replace it and if so, decides which team is to take its place according to the respective EHF ranking list. No draw must take place.
- 6.8. A team which withdraws, refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full loses all rights to payments from the EHF.

V. COMPETITION SYSTEM

Article 7

Number of participating teams

- 7.1. Each YAC EHF EURO is played with twenty-four (24) teams.

Article 8

Basis for participation in the W17 EHF EURO 2025

- 8.1. The top eight (8) nations of the respective YAC ranking list, the host, additionally qualified nations by the EHF, and teams who qualified through the W17 EHF EURO 2025 Qualification tournaments are entitled to participate in the W17 EHF EURO 2025.

Basis for participation in the W19 EHF EURO 2025

- 8.2. The twenty-four (24) nations which are qualified based on the YAC EHF Events 2023 including the host are entitled to participate in the W19 EHF EURO 2025.

Qualification for the W17 EHF EURO 2027

- 8.3. Based on the respective Women's YAC EHF 4-year Ranking List, the top eight (8) nations will receive a direct place at the W17 EHF EURO 2027.
- 8.4. The host nation(s) of the W17 EHF EURO 2027 will receive (a) direct place(s) in the respective competition (if the host nation(s) is (are) not amongst the nations ranked one (1) to eight (8)).
- 8.5. The winning nation of the W17 EHF EURO 2025 will receive a direct place in the W17 EHF EURO 2027 (if the winning nation of the W17 EHF EURO 2025 is not amongst the nations ranked one (1) to eight (8)).
- 8.6. All other registered participants will play the W17 EHF EURO 2027 Qualification Tournaments. These tournaments will be played between 27 and 29 November 2026.

- 8.7. Depending on the number of registered teams and the remaining open places for the W17 EHF EURO 2027, groups of a maximum of 4 teams will be formed for each qualification tournament.
- 8.8. The EHF reserves the right to award additional direct qualification(s) to the final tournament.

Qualification for the W19 EHF EURO 2027

- 8.9. Teams ranked first (1st) to twenty-first (21st) of the W17 EHF EURO 2025 are directly qualified for the W19 EHF EURO 2027, if the host for the W19 EHF EURO 2027 is amongst these teams.
- 8.10. Teams ranked first (1st) to twentieth (20th) of the W17 EHF EURO 2025 are directly qualified for the W19 EHF EURO 2027, if one host for the W19 EHF EURO 2027 is not amongst the teams ranked first (1st) to twenty-first (21st).
- 8.11. Teams ranked first (1st) to nineteenth (19th) of the W17 EHF EURO 2025 are directly qualified for the W19 EHF EURO 2027, if two hosts for the W19 EHF EURO 2027 are not amongst the teams ranked first (1st) to twenty-first (21st).

Relegation to the W19 EHF Championship I 2027

- 8.12. Teams ranked twenty-second (22nd) to twenty-fourth (24th) of the W17 EHF EURO 2025 are directly relegated to the W19 EHF Championship I 2027, if the host for the W19 EHF EURO 2027 is amongst the teams placed first (1st) to twenty-first (21st) of the W17 EHF EURO 2025.
- 8.13. Teams ranked twenty-first (21st) to twenty-fourth (24th) of the W17 EHF EURO 2025 are directly relegated to the W19 EHF Championship I 2027, if one host for the W19 EHF EURO 2027 is not amongst the teams placed first (1st) to twenty-first (21st) of the W17 EHF EURO 2025.
- 8.14. Teams ranked twentieth (20th) to twenty-fourth (24th) of the W17 EHF EURO 2025 are directly relegated to the W19 EHF Championship I 2027, if two hosts for the W19 EHF EURO 2027 are not amongst the teams placed first (1st) to twenty-first (21st) of the W17 EHF EURO 2025.

Article 9

Final tournament playing system

- 9.1. Each YAC EHF EURO consists of a preliminary round, a main round, an intermediate round, quarterfinals, cross matches, placement matches, semi-finals and finals.

Preliminary round group formation / Draw

- 9.2. The preliminary round is played in six (6) groups consisting of four (4) teams each.
- 9.3. The composition of the preliminary round groups of each YAC EHF EURO is decided by a public draw carried out by the EHF.
- 9.4. The seeding for the draw of the W17 EHF EURO 2025 is based on the respective YAC ranking list and the final results of the W17 EHF EURO 2025 Qualification Tournaments. The seeding for the draw of the W19 EHF EURO 2025 is based on the respective YAC ranking list.
- 9.5. The Host Federation team is seeded according to its ranking position in the respective YAC ranking list but not lower than the team ranked ninth (9th).
- 9.6. The teams ranked first (1st) to sixth (6th) are first seeded.
- 9.7. Once the seeding of the teams ranked first (1st) to sixth (6th) is finalised, the teams ranked seventh (7th) to twelfth (12th) are seeded.
- 9.8. Once the seeding of the teams ranked seventh (7th) to twelfth (12th) is finalised, the teams ranked thirteenth (13th) to eighteenth (18th) are seeded.
- 9.9. Once the seeding of the teams ranked thirteenth (13th) to eighteenth (18th) is finalised, the teams ranked nineteenth (19th) to twenty-fourth (24th) are seeded.
- 9.10. The draw starts with the pots not containing the Host Federation. Once the three pots are drawn, the Host Federation has the right to choose one of the groups (A-F) before the remaining places are drawn.

Match system for the preliminary round

- 9.11. The matches of the preliminary round are played in groups with each team playing all opponents in its group (round robin system). The basic playing schedule is to be found in enclosure 1.
- 9.12. All matches of the preliminary round are played in two times thirty (2 x 30) minutes with a half-time break according to the IHF Rules of the Game. There shall be no extra time.
- 9.13. Two points are awarded for a win, one point for a draw and no point for a defeat.
- 9.14. Teams' ranking in a group is obtained by adding up the number of points won by each team in each group match.

Equality of points during and after the preliminary round matches

- 9.15. If two or more teams are equal on points in the preliminary round, their ranking is determined as follows:

During the preliminary round matches:

- a) Superior goal difference from all group matches.
- b) Higher number of goals scored in all group matches.
- c) Alphabetical order.

After the completion of the preliminary round matches:

- a) Higher number of points obtained in the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- b) Superior goal difference from the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- c) Higher number of goals scored in the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- d) Superior goal difference from all group matches (achieved by subtraction).

- e) Higher number of goals scored in all group matches.

If the ranking of one of these teams is determined, the criteria are consecutively followed until the ranking of all teams is determined.

- 9.16. If this procedure does not lead to a decision after completion of all preliminary round matches, a draw must decide the ranking. The draw must be carried out by the EHF, if possible, in the presence of at least one (1) team official per delegation concerned.

Match system for the main and intermediate round

- 9.17. The teams ranked first (1st) and second (2nd) in each preliminary round group after completion of all preliminary round matches play in the main round.
- 9.18. The teams ranked third (3rd) and fourth (4th) in each preliminary round group after completion of all preliminary round matches play in the intermediate round.
- 9.19. Both, the main round and the intermediate round are played in three (3) groups consisting of four (4) teams each.
- 9.20. Teams ranked first (1st) and second (2nd) in the groups A and B compose group G (main round). Teams ranked first (1st) and second (2nd) in the groups C and D compose group H (main round). Teams ranked first (1st) and second (2nd) in the groups E and F compose group I (main round).
- 9.21. Teams ranked third (3rd) and fourth (4th) in the groups A and B compose group J (intermediate round). Teams ranked third (3rd) and fourth (4th) in the groups C and D compose group K (intermediate round). Teams ranked third (3rd) and fourth (4th) in the groups E and F compose group L (intermediate round).
- 9.22. The matches of the main and intermediate rounds are played in groups with each team playing all opponents in its group (round robin system). The basic playing schedule is to be found in enclosure 1.
- 9.23. The preliminary round results including points, goals scored, and goals received from the matches between the opponents who reached the main round are kept and remain valid for the ranking of the main round.

- 9.24. The preliminary round results including points, goals scored, and goals received from the matches between the opponents who reached the intermediate round are kept and remain valid for the ranking of the intermediate round.
- 9.25. All matches of the main and intermediate rounds are played in two times thirty (2 x 30) minutes with a half-time break according to the IHF Rules of the Game. There shall be no extra time.
- 9.26. Two points are awarded for a win, one point for a draw and no points for a defeat.
- 9.27. Teams' ranking in a main and intermediate round group is obtained by adding up the number of points won by each team in each main and intermediate group match.

Equality of points during and after the main and intermediate round matches

- 9.28. If two or more teams are equal on points in the intermediate round or in the main round, their ranking is determined as follows:

During the intermediate or main round matches:

- a) Superior goal difference from all group matches.
- b) Higher number of goals scored in all group matches.
- c) Alphabetical order.

After the completion of the intermediate or main round matches:

- a) Higher number of points obtained in the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- b) Superior goal difference from the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- c) Higher number of goals scored in the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- d) Superior goal difference from all group matches (achieved by subtraction).

- e) Higher number of goals scored in all group matches.

If the ranking of one of these teams is determined, the criteria are consecutively followed until the ranking of all teams is determined.

- 9.29. If this procedure does not lead to a decision after completion of all intermediate or main round matches, a draw must decide the ranking. The draw must be carried out by the EHF, if possible, in the presence of at least one (1) team official of the delegations concerned.

Participation of suspended and/or players not eligible to participate

- 13.26. The use of a player who has been suspended and/or is not eligible to play in any YAC EHF EURO match must be sanctioned in accordance with the applicable EHF Legal Regulations and EHF List of Penalties.

IX. KIT (players' clothing – shirts and shorts)

Article 14

Team kits requirements

- 14.1. Each team is required to have at least one (1) full team kit in light colours and one (1) full team kit in dark colours for the matches of the YAC EHF EURO. Blue and red are considered dark colours. In case of multi-coloured shirts in any of the full team kits, only one of the colours – and not the main colour – can be repeated in the other full team kit.
- 14.2. Goalkeepers' kit must differ from court players' kit, in both dark colour and light colour kit options.
- 14.3. The colours and the photos of the full team kits (at least one (1) light colour option and one (1) dark colour option) must be provided to the EHF before the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO within the deadline set by the latter and communicated in due course to the participating Member Federations. "Style guide" illustrations of the full team kits are not accepted as photos.
- 14.4. The full team kits (at least one (1) light colour option and one (1) dark colour option) of each team must be presented by each delegation at the first technical meeting prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO for final approval by the EHF. If more than two (2) full team kits have been prepared for the YAC EHF EURO, they must also be presented at the first technical meeting.
- 14.5. The full team kits approved at the first technical meeting are the only ones allowed during the entire YAC EHF EURO.

Choice of kit

- 14.6. A "kit plan" defining the full team kit (light colour option or dark colour option) to be used by each team in each preliminary round match is set up by the EHF (based on the composition of the groups and the TV appearance requirements) after the first technical meeting and communicated in due course to the delegations. Subject to Articles 14.8 and 14.9, the EHF decision is final. The "kit plan" must be respected by each participating team.
- 14.7. Such a "kit plan" is also set up by the EHF for the main round matches, the intermediate round matches, cross matches, placement matches and the final weekend matches after the respective technical meetings and communicated in due course to the delegations. Subject to Articles 14.8 and 14.9, the EHF decision is final.

- 14.8. The EHF delegate (supervisor) of each match is allowed to request any of the teams to play with another approved full team kit than the one specified in the kit plan if the EHF delegate considers that the colours of the team's pre-defined kits are likely to cause confusion. The teams must comply with the EHF delegate's (supervisor) instruction accordingly.
- 14.9. Any EHF Official (EHF delegate or EHF referee) of the match is allowed to request any of the team officials to change their clothing, if the EHF Official considers that colours of the team official's clothing are likely to cause confusion, in particular with the court players of the opposing team. The team officials must comply with the EHF Official's instruction accordingly.

Players' names / numbers – Officials' letters

- 14.10. Each player's number announced during the first technical meeting must be affixed on the back and front of the shirt of the respective player. The number must be clearly legible, must range from 1 to 99 and be at least 20 cm high on the back and at least 10 cm high on the front. The colour of the number must contrast clearly with the colour of the shirt.
- 14.11. During the entire duration of the YAC EHF EURO each player must wear the same number (the one announced during the registration process and confirmed during the first technical meeting) regardless of her/his position (goalkeeper or court player).
- 14.12. The player's surname announced in the Official Squad List must be displayed in clearly legible Latin letters of a minimum height of 10 cm on the backs of the shirts above the player's numbers.
- 14.13. The letter assigned by the delegations to their team officials during the first technical meeting must be affixed on the officials' accreditations. They must range from A to F. No loose letter card is allowed during the YAC EHF EURO.
- 14.14. During the entire duration of the YAC EHF EURO, each team official must wear the same letter (the one announced during the registration process and confirmed during the first technical meeting).

Additional requirements

- 14.15. During the team line-up, the entire team must wear identical clothing which shall consist of the shorts (except goalkeepers) of the approved team kit to be worn during the match together with the jerseys or jackets of the tracksuits. Under exceptional circumstances the EHF responsible for the match may permit long tracksuit trousers (harmonized for the entire delegation).
- 14.16. In accordance with the present regulations as well as the IHF Rules of the Game: Regulations on Protective Equipment and Accessories, the following shall apply during YAC EHF EURO matches:
- a) The court players and the goalkeepers must wear the approved full team kit specified in the respective “kit plan” or requested by the EHF delegate (supervisor). The surname and number of each player must appear on their shirts as defined here above.
 - b) For further information related to clothing issues, please refer to the respective IHF Regulations on Protective Equipment and Accessories.
 - c) The team officials on the bench must wear clothing having clearly distinct colour(s) from the colour(s) of the opposing team’s playing kit.

Article 15

Advertising on players’ kits

- 15.1. Subject to the restrictions mentioned hereunder, advertising on players’ kits is allowed.
- 15.2. Advertising related to drugs, pornography or spirits is strictly forbidden on the players’ kits.
- 15.3. For any advertising on kits during a YAC EHF EURO, the provisions and restrictions laid down in the Advertising on Clothing Regulations must be respected.
- 15.4. Each delegation member must comply with any further advertising restrictions communicated by the EHF to the participating Member Federations in due time prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.

- 15.5. The Host Federation must inform the EHF on any local restriction or ban regarding advertising in due time before the YAC EHF EURO.

Back shirt advertising restrictions

- 15.6. The area on the back of the shirts above the player's number must be free of any advertising or writing besides the player's surname.

Sleeves advertising

- 15.7. Sleeves of the players' shirts must be reserved for EHF advertising. Any other type of advertising and/or writing on the sleeve is forbidden.
- 15.8. The team official(s) in charge must ensure that the sleeves badges and/or logos are properly fixed on each player's shirt in due time prior to each match.
- 15.9. The EHF informs the participating Member Federations if the aforementioned EHF right to sleeve advertising will not be used at least six (6) weeks prior to the beginning of the respective YAC EHF EURO.

Non-obedience of the applicable points

- 15.10. Non-obedience of one or more of the provisions stated hereabove, and/or of the Advertising on Clothing Regulations, may be sanctioned according to the applicable EHF regulations, including the EHF Legal Regulations. In addition, the respective Member Federation may be required to reimburse all damages occurred.

X. MATCH PROCEDURE

Article 16

Laws of the game

- 16.1. YAC EHF EURO matches are played in conformity with the applicable Rules of the Game promulgated by the International Handball Federation (IHF) subject to the following specifications:
- a) Teams can play with up to sixteen (16) players.
 - b) Chairs instead of benches are installed in the substitution area.

- 17.1. A technical meeting is carried out one (1) day before the beginning of each YAC EHF EURO round (preliminary round; main / intermediate round; cross matches, placement matches and final weekend) in each YAC EHF EURO venue in the teams' hotel announced by the EHF.
- 17.2. Technical meetings must be attended by at least one (1) team official of each delegation participating in the respective round and the team guides. The team officials attending the technical meetings must be able to communicate in English.
- 17.3. In the first technical meeting of the YAC EHF EURO, one day prior to the first matches, each delegation must:
- a) Nominate its Official Delegation composed of a maximum of sixteen (16) players from the thirty-five (35) players of the Official Squad List and six (6) team officials. The team official in charge must complete all fields of the Official Delegation form, must sign it and must hand it over.
 - b) Present a valid passport or national identity card for each of the players nominated as part of the Official Delegation.

- c) Show the full team kits. One piece of each full team kit (dark colour option and light colour option) must be brought along. The full team kits colours of each participating team must be the ones announced at an earlier stage to the EHF (with the required modifications implemented, if any).
 - d) Confirm the national anthem of the respective country.
- 17.4. The full team kits of each team must be checked by the EHF during the first technical meeting of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 17.5. The Official Delegation forms presenting the lists of players and team officials nominated as Official Delegation must be checked with the players' passports or national identity cards, and be approved and signed by at least two (2) EHF delegates during the first technical meeting of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 17.6. During the following technical meetings of the YAC EHF EURO, the full team kits must be once again presented by each participating delegation.

Article 18

A. Pre-match procedure

Warm up

- 18.1. In due time before the start of a YAC EHF EURO match, the playing court is made available to the players of the two playing teams for warm-up and play practice.

Start List

- 18.2. One (1) hour before the start of a YAC EHF EURO match, the pre-prepared Start List containing the names of the Official Delegation of the playing teams must be checked and confirmed by the team officials in charge. Moreover, the team officials in charge must reduce the number of team officials to a maximum of four (4) by crossing out up to two (2) team officials listed. Only four (4) team officials are eligible to be in the substitution area during the match.
- 18.3. The Start List must be signed by each team official in charge and handed over to the EHF delegate (supervisor) thirty (30) minutes prior to the throw-off of the match.

- 18.4. The Host Federation is responsible to distribute the completed and finalised Start List to the press, press agents and to the EHF Office before the match.
- 18.5. The EHF delegate (supervisor) coordinates and is responsible for the Start List procedure assisted by the EHF Office.

Before team's line-up

- 18.6. Each player being on the playing court for the warm-up must immediately leave the playing court upon EHF referees' instructions to do so (twelve (12) minutes before the match throw-off at the latest).

Teams' line-up

- 18.7. Each player of the playing teams must be ready for the official teams' line-up ten (10) minutes prior to the official throw-off of the matches (twelve (12) minutes prior to the official throw-off for the matches of the final weekend).
- 18.8. Before entering the playing court for the official teams' line-up, ten (10) minutes before the match throw-off, the players have to follow both the EHF referees' and floor managers' instructions and gather at the defined collection point (pre-defined corner of the playing court surrounding area).
- 18.9. Once the EHF referees have given the playing teams the instruction to gather, none of the player is allowed to leave the playing court area.
- 18.10. The players must individually/as a team enter the playing court, in ascending order by jersey numbers following the respective EHF referee and flag bearer carrying the flag of the teams' country. The players of the team entering second on the playing court must pass by the first team in the centre of the court and high five with the other team players before taking their line-up position (Enclosure 2).

- 00:00 Throw-off/Order by EHF delegate (supervisor)

18.12. The detailed pre-match procedure schedule of the final weekend matches is adapted with two (2) additional minutes to the schedule defined under Article 18.11.

18.13. Further details and information about the pre-match procedure are provided to the delegations before the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO and before each match. The provided information may contain modifications to the schedule mentioned under Article 18.11 due to the practicalities of each venue and each match.

18.14. Instructions regarding pre-match procedure given by the floor manager and/or the EHF delegate (supervisor) in the playing hall before each match prevail and must in any case be followed by any person involved in the pre-match procedure.

18.15. Any playing team and individual causing a delay in the throw-offs (start/half-time/timeout) of a YAC EHF EURO match is liable for any damage incurred and may be sanctioned by the EHF accordingly.

Fair play announcement

18.16. The following fair-play announcement is read by the announcer in English and optionally in the official language of the country of the Host Federation once the teams lined-up, before the throw-off:

“To ensure fair conditions for all players, officials and referees and in the interest of the sport of handball we kindly request you, the spectators, to support your team in a fair manner and to show a positive attitude towards all participants and spectators, Thank you.”

B. Post-match procedures

Handshake and line up

18.17. Immediately after the end of a YAC EHF EURO match, after the public announcer's announcement of the teams' line-up, the playing teams must line up in the centre of the playing court facing the judges' table and carry out the official passing-by handshake after the player's awards according to enclosure 3.

Player of the match award

18.18. The nominations are made by the EHF and the Local Organising Committee. It is recommended that the Local Organising Committee appoint experts to participate in the nominations.

18.19. The players of the match are automatically nominated to join the EHF 'Respect Your Talent' programme. Details of the programme will be announced ahead of the start of the YAC EHF EURO.

18.20. The name of the player of the match is announced by the public announcer immediately after the end of the match and the teams' line-up; the named player must step out of the line.

18.21. The Player of the Match Awards shall be handed over by a member of the Local Organising Committee together with an EHF representative (if not available, an EHF delegate) to the selected Player of the Match of each team during a Player of the Match Award ceremony to be carried out as part of the short ceremony organised at the end of each match.

18.22. The awards for the player of the match will be provided by the EHF for all the 96 (ninety-six) matches, which represents altogether 192 (hundred-ninety-two) awards.

Flash Zone / Mixed zone

18.23. After the end of each YAC EHF EURO match and the respective ceremonies, all players and officials of the playing teams (physiotherapists and doctors excepted) must pass through the flash & mixed zone, respectively through the official routing system.

- 18.24. TV flash interviews take place on the court in front of the plexiglass sponsor backdrop. Players and/or the head coach of both playing teams must be available for interviews.
- 18.25. Interviews from other accredited media (TV, radio, written press) take place in the mixed zone. Players and team officials (physiotherapists and doctors excepted) of both playing teams must be available for interviews in the mixed zone.
- 18.26. The players, team officials and media representatives must comply with any instruction regarding the flash zone and the mixed zone provided by the EHF/Host Federation media officer.
- 18.27. The flash zone and mixed zone are located outside the player exit on the way from the playing court to the teams' dressing room. The mixed zone is divided into two (2) sections: walkway for the players and team officials and section for the media representatives.
- 18.28. Mixed zone must be equipped with the official event/sponsor backdrop. The layout of the backdrop must be sent to the EHF for approval before the event.
- 18.29. The Host Federation(s) ensure(s) that the flash zone/mixed zone area is safe and not accessible to the general public or any other unauthorised persons.

Post-match press conference

- 18.30. The organisation of post-match press conferences at YAC EHF EURO events is optional, depending on the level of media interest. Organisers may propose alternative ideas (e.g. flash or super flash interviews) and the EHF welcomes new initiatives and innovations. Approval must be sought from the EHF ahead of the start of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 18.31. If organised, official post-match press conference must take place in the media centre or in a dedicated press conference room. The press conference room needs to be equipped with the official event/sponsor backdrop, table, chairs and microphones. The layout of the backdrop must be sent to the EHF for approval before the event.
- 18.32. The official post-match press conference starts fifteen (15) minutes after the end of each YAC EHF EURO match or in case a ceremony takes place after the match, fifteen (15) minutes after the end of the respective ceremony(ies). The head coach of each playing team together with one (1) key player approved by the EHF must take part in the post-match press conference/interviews accompanied by an interpreter, if necessary.

18.33. During the post-match press conference/interviews of the semi-finals and the final, the head coach must be accompanied by two (2) key players approved by the EHF.

18.34. At the request of the EHF the official post-match press conference must be streamed live.

Transmission of results and tables

18.35. The Host Federation is responsible to distribute the half-time results, the final match results, the match reports as well as information on the number of spectators and any other relevant match information of each YAC EHF EURO match to the media, immediately after each respective match.

18.36. Person(s) in charge must be nominated by the Host Member Federation accordingly.

18.37. Match reports and tables showing results after completion of the matches in the respective round or group may be published only after being officially approved by the EHF.

C. Post-match specific ceremonies

All-star Team

18.38. The All-star Team of the YAC EHF EURO, composed of the best player of the YAC EHF EURO in each position as well as the Most Valuable Player, the Best Defence Player and the Top Scorer (all together ten (10) players) is elected by a group of experts present during the YAC EHF EURO and nominated by the EHF during the final weekend of the YAC EHF EURO.

18.39. The All-star Team is announced by the public announcer on the final day.

Farewell ceremony

18.40. A farewell ceremony for each team (except for the 1st-3rd ranked teams) takes place on the playing court at the end of the placement matches as well as at the end of the bronze final, following the players of the match award ceremony.

18.41. The Official Delegation of the team(s) receives commemorative medals and local gifts (for up to thirty (30) persons) from a representative of the Host Federation.

18.42. Further details and information about the farewell ceremony are communicated to the delegations at the technical meetings.

18.43. Instructions regarding the farewell ceremony given by the floor manager, respectively the EHF official in charge prevail and must be followed by any person involved in the farewell ceremony.

Medals and closing ceremony

18.44. After the final match of the YAC EHF EURO a medal and closing ceremony takes place on the playing court following the players of the match award ceremony. The Official Delegation of the teams ranked first to third must be present for the medals and closing ceremony.

18.45. The first, second and third ranked teams receive the following medals (for up to thirty (30) persons):

- 1st place and European Champion gold
- 2nd place silver
- 3rd place bronze

18.46. Besides the medals, the first ranked team receives the YAC EHF EURO trophy and the second and third ranked teams receive a trophy of a different shape.

18.47. Further details and information about the medals and closing ceremony are communicated to the relevant delegations in due time before the ceremony.

18.48. Instructions regarding the medals and closing ceremony given by the floor manager, respectively the EHF official in charge prevail and must be followed by any person involved in this ceremony.

Media and promotion

18.49. After the final match, the winner of the YAC EHF EURO must be available for media and promotion purposes upon EHF request.

Final Reception

18.50. At the evening of the final day of the Event a reception may be organised by the Organiser in an appropriate way: dinner for the EHF Officials, Organising Committee and Team Representatives (2 persons per Team delegation).

18.51. Alternative ideas/activities may be proposed to the EHF and require for their conduct EHF prior approval.

Seats for disqualified players

23.26. Seats in the spectators' stands must be reserved by the Host Federation for the players receiving a red card during the matches of the YAC EHF EURO. A person nominated by the Host Federation supervises those seats and ensure that the disqualified players remain in the defined stand area until the end of the draw for the anti-doping controls or, if no draw takes place, until the final whistle of the respective match.

Ambulance – first aid team

23.27. An ambulance (car) with the required qualified personnel and a first aid team must be present in the playing halls during all matches of the YAC EHF EURO.

Training halls – Training schedule

23.28. The Host Federation must draw-up a training schedule for each participating team during the YAC EHF EURO in accordance with the requirements defined herein (Articles 11.6 & 11.7) and those communicated in due course by the EHF at least two (2) months prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO. The training schedule must be fixed in such a way that teams playing against each other do not practice the one after the other in the same hall and that each team has the same opportunity to train on the main court during the YAC EHF EURO.

23.29. The training schedule must be approved by the EHF. Any change in the training schedule must be agreed on by the EHF and the Host Federation.

YAC EHF EURO draw

23.30. The Host Federation may organise the YAC EHF EURO draw defining the preliminary round groups in its country. Should the Host Federation organize the YAC EHF EURO draw, it must do it as a public event meeting the requirements of the TV host broadcaster and any requirements communicated in due course by the EHF. Moreover, the Host Federation must ensure that the draw is made available via live stream free of charge.

Others

23.31. The Host Federation must comply with and/or implement any other requirements related to the staging and organisation of the YAC EHF EURO defined in the Bidding Manual, in the organisation agreement between the Host Federation and the EHF and/or communicated by the EHF.

XVI. EHF OFFICIALS

Article 24

Definition

- 24.1. EHF Officials are EHF representatives, EHF delegates, EHF referees, EHF Office staff members as well as any other persons nominated by the EHF in relation with a YAC EHF EURO.

Code of Conduct

- 24.2. Any EHF Official nominated to participate in a YAC EHF EURO must sign the EHF Code of Conduct. During their assignment, the EHF Officials are bound by the obligations of the EHF Code of Conduct and the applicable EHF Regulations.

Article 25

EHF referee's nomination

- 25.1. The EHF referees of the YAC EHF EURO are appointed by the EHF. The appointed EHF referees must acknowledge the EHF nomination and inform the EHF accordingly without delay.
- 25.2. The nomination of the EHF referees for a YAC EHF EURO can be withdrawn at the EHF's sole discretion. The EHF decisions in matter of referee nomination for the YAC EHF EURO are final.
- 25.3. The EHF referee's nomination is communicated by the EHF to all parties concerned in due time prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 25.4. For each YAC EHF EURO match, in due course before the match, the EHF assigns two (2) referee couples out of those nominated. The second referee couple are "reserve" referees. The EHF decision is final.

Arrival of referees

- 25.5. The EHF referees nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must arrive at the relevant venue on the date and time communicated by the EHF, as planned and organised by the Host Federation in cooperation with the EHF referees and the EHF.
- 25.6. If any of the referees does not arrive at the match venue as planned and organised, the EHF will take the appropriate decisions. If the EHF decides to replace the referees, such a decision is final and no protest against the person or nationality of the referee is allowed.

Refusal

- 25.7. If the appointed EHF referees are unable to fulfil a nomination, they shall inform the EHF without delay by phone and subsequently in writing. In this case, the EHF appoints alternative referees.

Unfit referees

- 25.8. If any of the referees becomes unfit before or during a match and is unable to officiate, the referee couple is replaced by the referees nominated as “reserve referees” for the respective match.

Special report

- 25.9. In case of direct disqualifications or any major incidents, the referees must write an additional detailed report and give it to the EHF Office immediately after the end of the match.
- 25.10. In their report, the referees report in as much detail as possible on any incidents before, during and after the match, such as:
- Misconduct of players leading to direct disqualification
 - Unsportsmanlike behaviour by officials, members, supporters or anyone carrying out a function at a match on behalf of a Member Federation
 - Any other incidents
- 25.11. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the absence of report on an incident does not prevent the initiation of proceedings by the EHF.

Further tasks

- 25.12. The EHF referees nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must attend the Officials' Conference taking place prior to the YAC EHF EURO and any preparatory activity defined as mandatory by the EHF.
- 25.13. The EHF referees nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must fulfil the preparatory tasks defined and communicated by the EHF. The Member Federations of the referees must supervise those tasks and send a written confirmation to the EHF regarding their completion by the nominated EHF referees within the deadline set-up by the EHF.

Article 26

EHF delegates nomination

- 26.1. The EHF delegates of the YAC EHF EURO are appointed by the EHF. The appointed EHF delegates must acknowledge the EHF nomination and inform the EHF accordingly without delay.
- 26.2. The nomination of the EHF delegates for a YAC EHF EURO can be withdrawn at EHF's sole discretion. The EHF decisions in matter of delegate nomination for the YAC EHF EURO are final.
- 26.3. The EHF delegates nomination is communicated by the EHF to all parties concerned in due time prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 26.4. For each YAC EHF EURO match, in due course prior to the match, the EHF assigns two (2) delegates out of those appointed for the YAC EHF EURO: one (1) supervisor, one (1) observer. The EHF decision is final.

Arrival of delegates

- 26.5. The EHF delegates nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must arrive at the relevant venue on the date and time communicated by the EHF, as planned and organised by the Host Federation in cooperation with the EHF delegates and the EHF.
- 26.6. If any of the delegates does not arrive at the match venue as planned and organised, the EHF will take the appropriate decisions. If the EHF decides to replace the delegates, such a decision is final and no protest against the person or nationality of the referee is allowed.

Refusal

26.7. If the appointed EHF delegates are unable to fulfil a nomination, they shall inform the EHF without delay by phone and subsequently in writing.

26.8. In this case, the EHF appoints alternative delegates.

General responsibility

26.9. The EHF delegates act on behalf of the EHF.

26.10. When on duty, the delegates must always carry a copy of the relevant EHF regulations as well as the IHF Rules of the Game.

26.11. The EHF delegate (supervisor) with the support of the EHF delegate (observer) supervises the conduct of the match and prevents any occurrences that may lead to a protest or a repetition of a match following EHF requirements. If necessary, the EHF delegate (supervisor) acts as mediator.

26.12. The EHF delegate (observer) guides and supports the referees and observes and assesses their performance. However, the EHF delegate (observer) is not a chief referee. Responsibility on the playing area rests solely with the EHF referees.

26.13. Nonetheless, the EHF delegates must interrupt the match if necessary and bring errors that may lead to a protest to the EHF referees' attention. Errors in this context do not mean decisions made by the referees on the basis of their observation of facts. The delegates must not make decisions but only make recommendations.

26.14. The EHF delegates must always sit at the judges' table to have a good view of the substitution area at any time and to be able to intervene if necessary.

Special report

26.15. The EHF delegates must supervise the respect by all participating entities and persons of the EHF rules and regulations applicable to a YAC EHF EURO, including without limitation of the present YAC EHF EURO Regulations and the EHF Advertising on Clothing Regulations.

26.16. If any violation of the EHF rules and regulations or a major incident is observed the EHF delegates must:

- Write a specific remark on the match report and cross the box “report follows”
- Report such violation and/or incident in writing to the EHF Office immediately after the match.

26.17. In their reports, the delegates report in as much detail as possible on any violation/incidents before, during and after the match, such as:

- Incorrect teams’ line-up
- Incorrect player clothing (number, advertisements...), thermo clothing, socks etc.
- delay in the match throw-offs
- Unsportsmanlike behaviour by officials, members, supporters or anyone carrying out a function at a match on behalf of a Member Federation
- Any other incidents

26.18. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the absence of remark on the match report or of report on an incident does not prevent the initiation of legal proceedings by the EHF.

Digital Match report / Start List

26.19. The EHF delegate (supervisor) is responsible for the match report and the Start List.

26.20. Before the throw-off, the EHF delegate (supervisor) must check that the Start List is correct and take care that the Start List is confirmed and signed by an official of each playing team.

26.21. The YAC EHF EUROs shall be administered by the digital match report (DMR) system, the host Federations have the obligations to prepare the software for the scorekeeper.

26.22. The nominated EHF Delegates are responsible for the pre-prepared match report. The official delegation lists will be published on the delegate portal.

26.23. The host Federations shall offer a computer with internet access for the period right after the technical meeting (for the preparation of the match report) and also right after the match (for the completion of the match report).

26.24. The EHF Delegate shall take/print the DMR ticket and provide it to the scorekeeper.

- 26.25. The host federations shall secure that the scorekeeper duly handles the provided Digital Match Report (DMR) ticket by opening such ticket prior to the match. The scorekeeper shall put the match data directly into digital match report during the match and he/she shall compare the match data with the EHF Delegate during the half time and after the end of the match, following that he/she completes the digital match report.
- 26.26. The host federations shall secure that the timekeeper managing the match data (goals, time, etc.) on the score board shall continuously checking the data on the scoreboard with the EHF Delegate.
- 26.27. Alter the match the EHF Delegate shall check the digital match report with his match data and statistics, and he/she shall sign the digital match report.

Further tasks

- 26.28. The EHF delegates must know, comply with and fulfil any task defined in the “Off Court Officiating Guidelines” communicated by the EHF in due course prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 26.29. In particular, the EHF delegates must cooperate with the timekeeper and the scorekeeper as defined in the “Off Court Officiating Guidelines”.
- 26.30. The EHF delegates nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must attend the Officials’ Conference taking place prior to the YAC EHF EURO and any preparatory activity defined as mandatory by the EHF.
- 26.31. The EHF delegates nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must fulfil the preparatory tasks defined and communicated by the EHF.

Article 27

Other Officials

- 27.1. In addition to the EHF delegates, the EHF may appoint further Officials for supervising different fields related to the event (e.g. marketing, security...).

27.2. The duties and competence of those Officials are to be defined with each individual appointment.

EHF representatives

27.3. The EHF representatives act on behalf of the EHF. They represent the EHF in official activities.

27.4. They must know, comply with and fulfil any task defined in the “Task Management Profile Manual” communicated by the EHF in due course prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.

Score-taker, timekeeper and announcer

27.5. The score-taker, timekeeper and announcer are not EHF Officials. They are appointed by the Host Federation.

XVII. FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Article 28

A. Member Federations

Travel costs

- 28.1. The Member Federations must organise the travel of their delegation to and from the playing venue. The place of arrival of the delegation must be the nearest international airport or train station from the playing venue.
- 28.2. The travel expenses of any and all delegation members to and from the playing venue must be borne by the respective Member Federation.

Visa costs

- 28.3. All expenses arising from the procurement of visas for the members of the entire delegation must be borne by the respective Member Federation.

Entry fee/ Deposit

- 28.4. The entry fee and deposit defined under Article 5 must be paid by the respective Member Federation within the announced deadline to enter the YAC EHF EURO.

Daily rate

- 28.5. For the board, lodging and local transport of the delegations at the YAC EHF EURO venue(s) of a delegation of twenty-three (23) members or less, each Member Federation must pay a daily rate to the Host Federation.
- 28.6. The daily rate for the twenty-three (23) delegation members is announced to the Member Federations by the EHF during the bidding process.
- 28.7. Such rate must be paid to the EHF account within the deadline duly communicated by the latter to the participating Member Federations.
- 28.8. The number of days is the basis for the calculation of the global rate per delegation. The total is calculated from 12pm (noon) on the day of arrival at the venue (the day prior to the first match day at the earliest) to 12pm (noon) on the day of departure

(the day after to the last match day at the latest). The day of arrival and of departure are calculated as one (1) day when charging the daily rate (additional meals such as breakfast on the arrival day and lunch and lunch on the departure day must be paid extra).

28.9. The board, lodging and local transport of additional delegation members up to twenty-five (25) persons per delegation is organised by the Host Federation upon payment by the respective Member Federation of a daily rate within the deadline communicated by the EHF. The daily rate for the four (4) additional delegation members is agreed upon by the EHF and the Host Federation. The daily rate for the additional delegation members must be paid directly to the Host Federation account.

Additional days of stays/ Additional persons

28.10. If agreed by the Host Federation, the Host Federation may organise the board, lodging and local transport of more than twenty-three (23) delegation members, i.e. twenty-three (23) delegation members plus two (2) additional persons, upon request of a Member Federation at the respective Member Federation's costs.

28.11. If agreed by the EHF and the Host Federation, a delegation may arrive before the YAC EHF EURO and/or leave after the YAC EHF EURO a few days before/after the planned dates.

28.12. All costs and expenses related to those additional days at the venue must be borne by the respective Member Federation. The daily rate per delegation member for each additional day agreed upon by the EHF and the Host Federation is communicated in due time to the Member Federations by the Host Federation and must be paid within the deadline set forth by the latter.

Solidarity contribution

28.13. Each Member Federation participating in the Competition receives a solidarity contribution from the EHF amounting to:

- € 8,000 for Women's 19
- 50% of the daily rate – with a minimum support payment of € 10.000 and a maximum support payment of €16.380 for Women's 17

28.14. The contribution is paid in due time prior to the beginning of the Competition.

Article 29

B. Host Federation(s)

Staging and organizational costs

- 29.1. All expenses incurred in the host country to stage and organise the YAC EHF EURO must be borne by the Host Federation. This includes (without limitation) expenses and costs for local transport of the participating delegations from their place of arrival to the respective venue(s) and between the venues and expenses and costs for all kinds of activities at the venue (rest day programme, receptions, banquets, etc.).

Costs related to the delegations

- 29.2. The board, lodging and local transport of the delegations at the venue(s) for the duration of the YAC EHF EURO is organised by the Host Federation for up to a maximum of twenty-three (23) plus two (2) additional persons per delegation and up to a maximum of twelve (12) days (one day prior to the first match day at the earliest and one day after the last match day at the latest) against payment of a daily rate. The respective daily rates are defined as stated in Article 28.
- 29.3. The Host Federation may agree, upon a Member Federation's request, to organise the board, lodging and local transport of additional delegation members.

Article 30

Tickets and accreditations

- 30.1. An accreditation system meeting the needs of the Event will be set up by the EHF.
- 30.2. Special consideration will be given to the need of restricting access to the playing area and facilities adjacent to it (changing room, access to the playing court, etc.) to duly authorised persons.
- 30.3. Every member of participating delegations for whom the daily rate has been paid shall receive an accreditation and shall be provided with a spectator place dedicated for the teams for matches in their respective groups.
- 30.4. Any change to the above must be agreed between the Organiser and the EHF.

XVIII. EXPLOITATION OF COMMERCIAL RIGHTS

Article 31

Marketing and media rights

- 31.1. The EHF owns and has the sole right to exploit the marketing and audio-visual rights including betting (if applicable) and advertising rights of the YAC EHF EURO and all related activities (draw, opening and closing ceremonies...) subject to the marketing rights retained by the Host Federation defined in article 31.3. The EHF has the exclusive right to award audio-visual rights related to the YAC EHF EURO as well as advertising rights in playing halls of the YAC EHF EURO. The EHF may exercise its right to exploit those rights at its sole discretion and on a universal basis.
- 31.2. In this regard, no Member Federation may use or exploit, directly or indirectly, any marketing or audio-visual rights of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 31.3. Subject to the EHF rights defined in Articles 31.1, the Host Federation is granted the following non-exclusive right to exploit marketing rights, to include up to five packages (LED time - 3-mins per package and on-court advertising - one sticker per package) for the games of the team of the Host Federation, semi-finals and final, which can be offered to national partners and sponsors.
- 31.4. The advertising set-up shall be as follows:

TV Production

- 31.6. The EHF is responsible for producing HD TV signal meeting the international standards.
- 31.7. The Host Federation must provide all facilities for the installation of TV equipment (e.g. cameras) required by the TV host broadcaster.
- 31.8. All matches will be streamed on the EHF's OTT platform EHFTV. Geo-blocking may apply.

Video recordings

- 31.9. Upon application to the EHF, all delegations are permitted to make video recordings of the YAC EHF EURO matches for teaching and training purposes.
- 31.10. Video recordings, however, may only be made by one (1) member of the respective delegation, using one (1) camera. Such video recordings must be used solely for the purposes of internal team preparation and match tactic information (education of players). The use of the video recordings for any other purpose whatsoever, including (without limitation) a commercial exploitation, is forbidden.
- 31.11. The person of the delegation wishing to record a match on video must have a permit issued by the EHF. Persons who do not present an EHF permit may be asked to leave the hall.
- 31.12. Due to space limitations in a playing hall, restrictions on video recordings may have to be imposed by the Host Federation. Such restrictions must be agreed with the EHF.
- 31.13. During the YAC EHF EURO, videos of the matches played are made available free of charge to the EHF on each respective match day for analysis.

Video platform

- 31.14. The EHF will provide a platform for national teams to access full match videos for analysis purposes. Directly after the completion of each match the Host Federation must provide the EHF, free of charge, with the full match video, uploaded to a platform designated by the EHF.

31.15. The rules and principles governing this system are decided and announced by the EHF in due time prior to the YAC EHF EURO.

Photographs

31.14. A professional photographer must be hired by the Host Federation to make high resolution pictures of the YAC EHF EURO matches:

- 4 pre-match photos (fans, full arena, warm-up, entry ceremony)
- 6 action/emotion photos from the first half (one photo of each team in action)
- 10 match photos – sent not later than 20 minutes after the match

31.15. These photographs (minimum 20) must cover at least the scenes as outlined below:

- Match pictures (action/emotions) with sponsor presence on barrier boards and floor stickers and with both teams represented
- Cheering picture of the winning team
- Goalkeepers in action
- Coaches in action
- Referees in action
- Team line-up
- Beauty shot of the arena showing the full playing court
- Team pictures before the match (changing room, on-court during warm up, etc.)
- Team timeout
- Ceremonies (EHF Representatives + VIPs)
- Opening and awarding ceremony
- Fans emotion/close up

31.16. The pictures must be provided free of charge to the EHF Media and Communications Department and participating federations via upload to the EHF photo system immediately after the match for use on the owned and operated communication channels of the EHF and the participating federations. The details of uploading process will be distributed to the respective Host Federation in due time prior to the tournament. The following quality criteria shall apply to each photo:

- Minimum resolution of at least 8 Megapixel per picture
- 300dpi
- Jpg format

Article 32

Personality rights

- 32.1. All participating Member Federations, including the Host Federation, grant the EHF the right (royalty-free) to use photos and graphic materials of players and officials as well as Member Federations names, emblems and players uniforms within the framework of the Competition for non-commercial purposes.
- 32.2. All participating Member Federations, including the Host Federation, grant the EHF the right (royalty-free) to use any photo, any material (print material, ads, internet, product presentation, video etc.) produced for/at the YAC EHF EURO matches for handball/ EHF competitions promotions and sport development (training, teaching, etc.) purposes at any time during or after the Competition.
- 32.3. The EHF has the right to transfer these aforementioned rights of use to partner companies for the same purposes. Such transfer is limited to an advantageous usage in the framework of the direct promotion of the event and/or the sport, prior, during and directly after the event and serves the increase of the event venue and the attraction of additional spectators. Exclusively film material, TV footage and group pictures may be used for such purposes by the EHF and its related partners. Any individual picture use or any use which assigns an individual person to a specific product and its values shall not be comprised by the actual entitlements.
- 32.4. Each participating Member Federation, including the Host Federation, must obtain the consent of the respective players and officials participating to the YAC EHF EURO to the use of their image as defined here above. Each participating Member Federation must hold the EHF and its partners harmless from any legal action from a player concerning the player's image rights.

XIX. PROTESTS/VIOLATIONS – LEGAL PROVISIONS

Article 33

EHF Legal Regulations

- 33.1. The provisions of the EHF Legal Regulations, the EHF List of Penalties and the EHF Catalogue of Administrative Sanctions apply to all legal matters including procedural aspects and disciplinary offences committed by the teams, delegations, individuals and/or EHF Officials at the YAC EHF EUROs unless stipulated otherwise in the present chapter.

Competent Bodies

Jurisdiction

- 33.2. Under the provisions defined in the present chapter, the Disciplinary Commission and the Jury are responsible for disciplinary adjudication, punishing violations of applicable regulations including those of an administrative nature falling within the scope of Article 21 of the Legal Regulations, settling dispute including protests and deciding upon any other issues arising from the YAC EHF EURO.

Disciplinary Commission

- 33.3. The Disciplinary Commission is responsible as the body of first instance.
- 33.4. The Disciplinary Commission consists of the EHF Court of Handball acting as an ad hoc body.

Jury

- 33.5. The Jury is responsible as the body of second instance. It is the highest EHF legal body at the YAC EHF EURO.
- 33.6. The Jury consists of the EHF Court of Appeal acting as an ad hoc body.
- 33.7. Any decision made by the Disciplinary Commission according to the aforementioned provisions may be appealed to the Jury.

Regulations Infringements/Disciplinary Matters

- 33.8. Delegation members (including players and team officials) and EHF Officials agree to comply with the present Regulations as well as all applicable regulations as defined in Article 3 and EHF directives. They must notably:
- Respect the spirit of fair play and non-violence and behave accordingly
 - Refrain from any activity that endangers the integrity of the YAC EHF EURO and bring the sport of handball into disrepute
 - Refrain from anti-doping violations as defined in the EHF Regulations for Anti-Doping
 - Observe the EHF Codes of Conduct
- 33.9. If deemed appropriate by the EHF to ensure the proper running of the YAC EHF EURO and/or the respect of the applicable regulations during the YAC EHF EURO, violations of the present Regulations and/or any other EHF regulations applicable to the YAC EHF EURO, by any team, delegation, individual and/or EHF Official are examined, decided upon and sanctioned by the Disciplinary Commission and the Jury (in appeal) following an express procedure. For the avoidance of doubt, the present dispositions also apply to direct disqualifications.
- 33.10. The Member Federations of the respective delegations or teams, individuals and/or the EHF Officials against whom the proceedings are initiated, must have the possibility to provide a statement of defence.
- 33.11. In those cases, the deadlines applicable to protests are not applicable and shall be defined by the competent legal body within the course of the proceedings.
- 33.12. The carrying out of legal/disciplinary proceedings as defined herein is independent of any reporting obligations.

Disciplinary/legal proceedings

- 33.13. Violations of the present Regulations and/or any other EHF regulations applicable to a YAC EHF EURO by any team, individual and/or EHF Official are examined, decided upon and sanctioned by the Disciplinary Commission (EHF Court of Handball ad hoc body) and the Jury (EHF Court of Appeal ad hoc body) (in appeal) following an express procedure. For the avoidance of doubt, the present dispositions also apply to direct disqualifications.

33.14. The Member Federations, individuals and/or the EHF Officials against whom the proceedings are initiated must have the possibility to provide a statement of defence.

33.15. In those cases, the deadlines applicable to protests defined here below are not applicable and shall be defined by the competent legal body within the course of the proceedings.

33.16. The carrying out of legal/disciplinary proceedings is independent of any reporting obligations.

33.17. Unless deemed necessary by the EHF to ensure the proper running of a YAC EHF EURO, dispute, disciplinary and/or legal adjudication arising from matches played on the last day of the YAC EHF EURO or from the last match of the respective team shall be settled through the regular EHF legal system, i.e. the EHF Court of Handball in first instance, the EHF Court of Appeal in second instance and eventually the European Handball Court of Arbitration.

Protests

Definition

33.18. Under the present chapter, “protest” shall mean: any match-related claim which may have an impact on the result of a YAC EHF EURO match.

Exclusion of protests

33.19. With regard to all and any YAC EHF EURO matches, protests shall not be permitted when relating to:

- a) Date, time, venue and draw of the matches.
- b) Nomination of referees and delegates.
- c) Referee’s decisions on facts in accordance with the Rules of the Game including those based on EHF delegates’ recommendations.

Procedure

- 33.20. Protests shall be handed over in writing and in English to the EHF delegate (supervisor) of the match within one (1) hour after the end of the relevant match.
- 33.21. Moreover, a protest fee of € 1,000 shall be paid by the claimant to the EHF. This amount shall be paid directly to the EHF delegate (supervisor) or shall be transferred to the EHF bank account at the same time as the claim is handed over. A written proof of payment of the protest fee in the defined deadline shall be deemed sufficient.
- 33.22. If the protest is fully granted, the protest fee is refunded to the claimant; otherwise it is forfeited to the credit of the EHF.
- 33.23. The reasons for the protest as well as any relevant statement shall be submitted in writing to the EHF delegate or to the EHF Office by the claimant no later than 9:00hrs local time, the day after the relevant match.
- 33.24. The deadlines and fees for protests apply equally for any additional information submitted in connection with the YAC EHF EURO.
- 33.25. The Disciplinary Commission takes a decision by simple majority on the protest no later than 12:00hrs (noon) local time, the day after the relevant match. Such a decision is announced to the relevant parties.

Appeals

- 33.26. Unless otherwise provided in the decision of the Disciplinary Commission, an appeal against a decision of the Disciplinary Commission shall be received by the EHF Office in writing no later than 20:00hrs local time the same day the Disciplinary Commission decision is communicated to the parties.
- 33.27. Besides, an appeal fee of € 1,000 shall be paid by the appellant to the EHF. This amount shall be paid directly to the EHF Office Staff member or shall be transferred to the EHF bank account at the same time as the appeal is filed/requested. A written proof of payment of the appeal fee in the defined deadline shall be deemed sufficient.
- 33.28. If the appeal is fully granted, the fee shall be refunded; otherwise the appeal fee is forfeited to the credit of the EHF.

33.29. Such an appeal request is transferred to the Jury. The Jury makes a decision by simple majority following an express procedure. Such a decision is announced to the relevant parties.

Eligibility to play

33.30. The submission of protests concerning eligibility to play is not subject to any mandatory deadline.

European Handball Court of Arbitration (ECA)

33.31. Any issue decided upon by the Jury may be brought by any of the relevant parties before the ECA. The Rules of Arbitration for the ECA apply.

33.32. The initiation of proceedings before the ECA on a specific issue does not suspend the implementation of the decision taken by Jury on such an issue, unless decided otherwise by the ECA in accordance with the Rules of Arbitration for the ECA.

Arising costs

33.33. In principle the actual costs for personnel and material arising from the activities of the Disciplinary Commission and the Jury shall be charged in connection with the procedure. Rules governing the apportionment and payment of costs related to the EHF bodies' legal proceedings by and between the parties are stated in Article 48 of the EHF Legal Regulations.

Exclusion of liability

33.34. The EHF shall not be liable for any third-party liability claims arising from the execution of single matches or any other events in connection with the YAC EHF EURO.

XX. ANTI-DOPING

Article 34

Doping control

- 34.1. Doping controls may take place before, during and after each YAC EHF EURO in accordance with the EHF Regulations for Anti-Doping. As of the registration of their teams to the YAC EHF EURO, the participating Member Federations must fill in the official “whereabouts” forms and send them to the EHF and the EHF Anti-Doping Official/Unit (EAU). The “where-about” forms must be regularly updated by the participating Member Federations and communicated accordingly to the EHF and the EHF Anti-Doping Official/Unit (EAU) prior and during the YAC EHF EURO.
- 34.2. The EHF Regulations for Anti-Doping, their enclosures and the WADA’s Anti-Doping Code including the list of banned substances are an integral part of these YAC EHF EURO Regulations.
- 34.3. In case of Anti-Doping rule violations, EHF will initiate disciplinary proceedings against the perpetrators and take the appropriate disciplinary measures in accordance with the EHF Legal Regulations, the EHF List of Penalties and the EHF Regulations for Anti-Doping. This may include the imposition of provisional measures.
- 34.6. Member Federations must immediately inform the EHF of any decision at national level sanctioning a player for doping (including interim measures of protection/temporary injunction). A copy of the decision must be sent to the EHF Office. Decisions of Member Federations concerning doping confirmed by the EHF Anti-Doping Unit will be automatically implemented by the EHF at European level.
- 34.7. Each delegation is required to have an AD responsible person who has successfully completed the WADA online training.
- 34.8. Each delegation is mandated to attend a NADA education workshop (confirmation of participation to be sent to the EAU).

EHF Anti-Doping activities

- 34.9. Delegation members (including players and team officials) shall participate in the Anti-Doping activities organised by the EHF within the frame of the YAC EHF EURO.

XXI. SPECIAL REGULATIONS

Article 35

Qualification for World Championships

WU18

- 35.1. Based on the places available to the continents for the WU18 IHF World Championships 2025, the top ranked teams of the W17 EHF EURO 2025 qualify directly for the IHF World Championship of the same age category.
- 35.2. Further places can be directly assigned by the EHF based on the final result of the W17 EHF EURO 2025, depending on the number of places available for Europe.

WU20

- 35.3. Based on the places available to the continents for the WU20 IHF World Championships 2025, the top ranked teams of the W19 EHF EURO 2025 qualify directly for the WU20 IHF World Championship 2025 of the same age category.
- 35.4. Further places can be directly assigned by the EHF based on the final result of the W19 EHF EURO 2025, depending on the number of places available for Europe.

XXII. CLOSING PROVISIONS

Article 36

- 36.1. All enclosures form an integral part of these regulations.
- 36.2. These regulations were adopted by the EHF Executive Committee on 23 September 2011, came into force on 1 October 2011, and were lastly amended by the EHF Executive Committee in September 2024.
- 36.3. Any amendment to the present regulations decided by the EHF Executive Committee and/or the EHF Congress will be communicated via circulars or reports to the EHF Member Federations.
